You enter the property at street level, this is where the BBQ / Paella & outside Bar terrace is situated to the front of the Villa which has a long front terrace, and access to a very modern and versatile utility room with wine cooler and additional fridge-freezer, washing machine, and lots of storage.

On entering the villa, you come to a charming entrance hall, which opens up on to an open plan large dining room area, with the fully fitted kitchen with integrated appliances and pantry off to the left, and just past the dining room to the left again is an open plan sitting room with stunning views of the mountains and valley through the arched windows. Off the central dining area to the right is a hallway with 2 double guest bedrooms with air conditioning units and fitted wardrobes, and a modern bathroom/wet room with a large shower.

Down the ornate staircase to the lower floor, you come to a large lounge/sitting area with arched windows with mountain views, off this is a beautiful open Naia / sitting area. On this level there is also the master bedroom suite with fitted wardrobes and a very large master en-suite with shower and corner bath and his and her sinks, within the bedroom is a large area currently used as a home office but could equally be a dressing table area and extension of the bedroom. On this level there is also another double guest bedroom with lots of fitted wardrobes.
